

JACK

I am Jack, free as a bird and tough as a rock. I always say: you are who you are, and you will be so out loud. So sing that wicked little heart of yours out and speak your mind. Be you and show yourself, for you are strong and beautiful and will never be anybody else but you.

My go-to quote: " If you aren't gonna say exactly how and what you feel, you might as well say nothing at all ."
